Foreword

We the Senior Class of 1966 present this 17th edition of the Martinian to our parents, faculty, and classmates.

Between the covers of this annual, we have tried to print the trials and tribulations, the memories and joys, and the hopes and fears which have accompanied us and our fellow students in this all but too brief year.

We hope the experiences of this year which we have tried to preserve in both picture and word will serve as a brief reminder of your youth and time spent at Thomas W. Martin High School.

May you enjoy the '66 Martinian as much as we have enjoyed preparing it.

Dedication

"Honor to whom honor is due"

Recognition and honor sometimes come slowly to those who deserve it most. This is certainly true of Miss Sarah Joyce White whose hard work, helpfulness, and kindness through the years have endeared her to all who have passed through these halls under her guidance. Very few give themselves so completely and ask so little in return. The imprint of the good she has left on the lives of so many students will be seen again, many-fold, in generations to come. The Senior Class is proud to dedicate this edition of the MARTINIAN to her and in so doing express the gratitude of all who have wanted to do this before.

Superintendent's Message

Dear Seniors:

Thank you for this opportunity to write in your annual.

I want to encourage each of you to further your education, for education of a man is never complete until he dies. Benjamin Franklin once said: "If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it from him."

The sailing may not always be easy, but always do your best. Remember, kites rise against, not with the wind. Doing little things well is a step toward doing big things better.

The purpose of an education is to prepare men and women to live, to think, to see, and to be happier and better citizens. The happiest people are those who think the most interesting thoughts. Those who decide to use leisure as a means of mental development, who love good music, good books, good pictures, good company, good conversation, are the happiest people in the world. And they are not only happy in themselves; they are the cause of happiness in others. The secret of happiness in this world lies in thinking of the welfare of others first, and not taking one's self too seriously.

So long as you contribute to the development, happiness, or comfort of any human being, you are of importance in the world--and no longer. Not your personal enjoyment, but your part in God's plan for others is the measure of your importance in this world.

It isn't your portion that makes you happy or unhappy, it's your disposition. Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

Watch your daily actions, for behavior is a mirror in which everyone shows his image.

A corporation may spread itself over the whole world, and may employ a hundred thousand men; but the average person will usually form his judgment of it through his contact with one individual. If this person is rude or inefficient, it will take a lot of kindness and efficiency to overcome the bad impression. Every member of an organization who in any capacity comes in contact with the public is a salesman, and the impression he makes is an advertisement, good or bad.

What kind of salesman are you? Act the way you'd like to be and soon you'll be the way you act.

Robert E. Cunningham

Principal's Message

A person who hopes to become educated should have in mind many goals. He should set goals which deal not only with the material side of life, but also those which concern his spiritual and moral nature. To meet this challenge, one should adequately prepare and qualify himself to become a productive citizen of this country.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of the Thomas W. Martin High School, town of Gorgas, County of Walker, and State of Alabama, being of sound mind and memory, and in a somewhat generous mood, do hereby make, publish, and declare this, our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We, as a class, bequeath to you the Senior Class of sixty-seven our joint estate. We leave you with Miss White and Mr. Wylie, our greatest treasures. Their understanding and guidance are invaluable, so treat them with kindness and appreciation.

- I, David Chappell, will my ability to scratch off in front of the school to Ronny Thompson and Jerry Sanford.
- I, J. C. Hyche, will my ability to worry Miss White in typing class to Frank Benson, Michael Key, and Greg Hosmer.
- I, Steve Tittle, will my ability to fake injuries and get out of football practice to David Estes and Harry Copeland.
- I, Alfred Woods, will my ability of being "GOOD CITIZENSHIP BOY" to Steve Ferguson.
- I, Jimmy Thacker, will my ability to ride motorcycles to Thomas Sullivan.
- I, Ray Smith, will my ability to drive highspeed racing boats to Jimmy Short and Mike Nunnelee.
- I, David Craft, being of unsound mind, will my ability to be the loudest and rudest, but to get quietest and most polite in the Senior Class to Edsel Prestridge and Monte Key.
- I, Ronald Naramore, will my ability to coast down these Walker County hills and save gas so I can go somewhere later to Jerry Chappell and L. J. Fondren.
- I, James Lockhart, hoping to succeed in my future ambitions, will my proceedings to Jimmy Wright, Mitchell Garner, and Sammy Hicks.
- I, Roger Key, will my ability to miss football practice every other day to Joe Jones.
- I, Johnny Cotton, will my ability to go to the post office twice a day to David Horton in hopes that he can get away with it.
- I, Jennifer Key, with tears in my eyes, will all my wonderful memories (most of them) and great times to Judy Lockhart.
- I, Becke Brown, will my ability to stick my foot in my mouth each morning in English Class and to be talked about at the football banquet by a certain person (Mr. Wylie) to Karla Key.
- I, Mary Ann Goswick, will all the fun I had in the "loudest class in school" to Patricia Wade, Linda Palmer, and Donna Stewart. Hope they enjoy it as I did.
- I, Nina Perry, will my titles to Most Polite and Quietest to Bobbie Earnest and Donna Sanford in hopes that they will learn some manners and quiet down.
- I, Jan Hyche, will my ability to cry every day to Jean Tittle.

- I, Bertha Sadberry, will all the fun and fusses I've had during my Senior year to Kenny Odom.
With whom will you fuss next year?
- I, Jackie Thompson, will my book shelves in the school library to Sherry Perry. Keep them dusted, Sherry!
- I, Paula Hooker, will my ability of being the biggest bum in the Senior Class to Ricky Henson and Susan Jackson.
- I, Brenda Cook, will my ability of being Class Grumbler to Laura Jane Morrow.
- I, Margaret Minor, will my ability to gain weight to James Lester Sanford.
- I, Sue Jent, will nothing to anyone because it has taken all the determination I had to get this far.
- I, Carolyn Carmichael, will all my fun during my Senior year to Claudia Kyzer and Lorraine Smith.
- I, Elaine Fondren, will my deep love for shorthand homework (ugh!) to Yvonne Kelley and Karen Smith in hopes that they will grow fonder of it.
- I, Darlene Richardson, will nothing because I need all I have.
- I, Linda Sanford, will my ability of being engaged all my Senior year to Hilda Teske. (Good Luck!)
- We, Shela Keeton and Glenda Short, will nothing to anyone because it took all we had and a little of somebody else's to get where we are now. (Nowhere!)
- I, Rodger Short, will all the fun during my Senior year to Willice Bolton and Charles Snow.
